Prof. R. E. Odium was re-elected

United States Senator.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 19.—In joint session there were 57 Senators present and 152 Representatives. When the vote was taken for United States Senator, the Democrats, hoping to get some Republican votes, Barry withdrew his vote from Logan, but stated he would not allow any other Republican but

Logan to be elected. On the call of absentees the Democrats, however, changed their vote, and the roll-call, Baker, McNary,

Caldwell, Quinn and Crofts changed their vote and supported Logan. The widest convention of the State was held to-day.

SPRINGFIELD, May 19.—General Logan,

upon being introduced by the Speaker,

addressed the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Illinois.

Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette: The following is the list of the members of the Illinois Legislature, now that they have a majority, to elect Logan and to home, Springfield is a mighty unwholesome place for legislators.

New York World: When a public officer, whether the Chief Executive or a subordinate official, disregards the sentiments of the people and wants to be "boss"—the master of the people instead of their servant, he makes a mistake and lays up for himself future trouble.

NEEDS SUPPRESSION.
A Wife-Abuser and His Disreputable Room.
At quarter to four yesterday morning Billy Manning, the prize fighter who has leased the Palm Garden and is making it the nightly gambling-ground of thieves and other bad characters, aroused the neighborhood by assaulting his wife brutally and without provocation. He had been loading up with liquor all night up town, and at last returned to the Palm Garden at the persistent entreaties of his wife. No sooner were they inside the bar-room than he pounced upon the unfortunate woman and slammed her violently against the wall and continued in a series of her shrieks "For God's sake, Billy, don't kill me!" An outsider twice pulled the brass away and made him promise to behave; but the row began again in a moment each time. The police were finally called, and Manning cooled off. He was not arrested, as he had not been seen to actually strike the woman, though he had been seen to assault her. Manning's place in the heart of the best part of the city is a disgrace to Los Angeles, and he never should have been licensed to carry it on. It sinks mainly sports to a brutal level and is a breeding of disorder. The interests of the city will be advanced by the closing of his place.
CONDITION OF THE CITY.
The Health Officer on His Sanitary Mission.
"What is the sanitary condition of the city, Doctor," asked a Times reporter of Health Officer Baker yesterday.
"Oh, very fair now," was the reply. "As good as could be expected. I am still keeping at the matter of enforcing sanitary regulations, and getting work started on fifteen or twenty places a day. In certain parts of the city, things are in very satisfactory shape; but in those localities where there is as yet no sewer system, the situation is not so good. I have been making arrangements for the drainage of the best we can do at present there is no effort to enforce cleanliness."
"How do the citizens respond to your efforts in behalf of sanitary measures?"
"The better portions of the city, people take hold with alacrity when a suggestion is made while in other quarters, as Sonoma, it is almost impossible to get anything done. This, however, is not confined wholly to any one class. Some who are ranked among our best citizens are mulish when we try to get them to do anything in behalf of the general health. But they must come to it, for the sanitary laws are going to be enforced anyhow."
THROWN OUT.
A Runaway Responsible for Two Deaths.
J. B. Gibson, of Scotland, arrived in this city Sunday on a visit to his brother, who later came down from Ventura county to meet him. The train left a team from the Temple street car house, and took with it to Pasadena. About 3 p. m. they were passing the new depot on their return to Los Angeles, when the engine and car ran. In front of the Southern Hotel they collided with a wagon, dumping the buggy and its occupants in the street. Both sustained severe, but probably not dangerous injuries, one having his face very badly bruised, and the other also getting a bad wrench of the spine. They were taken into the Hospital, and remained an hour before recovering enough to return to their quarters at the St. Elmo. The horses were caught and taken to the city pound.
